HARPER'S BAZAR.

2057

A REPOSITORY OF

FASHION, PLEASURE, AND INSTRUCTION.

Vol. III.

NEW YORK:
HARPER & BROTHERS, PUBLISHERS,
FRANKLIN SQUARE.

Entered, according to Act of Congress, in the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy, by HARPER & BROTHERS, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York, and in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

HARPER'S BAZAR has completed the third year of its existence. A glance at the pages of the present volume will prove that the promises which it made at the outset of its career have been more than fulfilled, and that it may justly be ranked as the best and most beautiful Illustrated Family Newspaper in the world. It is, indeed, the only journal in existence which makes the Fashions a specialty, and at the same time combines therewith the best literature and illustrations that the pen and pencil of the first writers and artists can produce. No pains and expense are spared, in fact, to make HARPER'S BAZAR all that can be desired in every department, whether fashion, literature, or art.

We are glad to say that our relations abroad are such that the European war has not checked our progress in any manner, as some predicted would be the case. The newest styles continue to be published in our columns simultaneously with their appearance in Europe; and the temporary interruption of communication with the besieged French capital has been fully compensated for by the new and varied attractions procured elsewhere.

Every Number of the BAZAR is electrotyped, and the volumes now complete may be obtained at Seven Dollars per Volume.

☞ Subscribers who wish to Bind the Third Volume of HARPER'S BAZAR may obtain gratuitously from the principal Newsdealers A TITLE-PAGE AND TABLE OF CONTENTS. Dealers may obtain CLOTH COVERS for Binding the Volume at Seventy-five Cents.
